TECHNICAL PULSE

5 June 2018

Technical Buy

*Entry Price: 0.580

Stop loss : 0.505

Take profit : 0.685

*Japfa Ltd will be added to the Phillip 20 Portfolio once the trade is triggered

Current Sentiment: Bullish Support 1: 0.530 Resistance 1: 0.615 Support 2: 0.510 Resistance 2: 0.685

The bullish momentum failed to sustain after the last update leading to the next leg of selling. At one point, the bearish momentum was very strong as price broke below the 0.460 low in March and April 2018.

However, it was with the bearish breakout below the 0.460 low on 02/03/18 that anchored in the bottom for this recent reversal higher. After breaking sharply below the 0.460 low on 02/03/18 with price hitting a low of 0.430, buyers managed to defend the 0.440 support area. As a result, a hammer rejection off the 0.440 support area with increasing volume was formed. With the benefit of hindsight, that hammer has anchored in a bottom.

The rebound higher since 02/03/18 has shifted the immediate trend to a bullish one as the 20 day moving average crossed above the 60 day moving average on 02/05/18. Moreover, price has also broken and stayed above and the long-term 200 day moving average since 03/05/18 signalling further sign of strength.

For the past two weeks, price has been consolidating within a small range shown by the highlighted area in the chart, and a breakout finally occurred. There was a bullish breakout above the 0.555 immediate range high with increasing volume on 04/06/18 suggests the resumption of the uptrend.

Expect price to head higher next to test the 0.615 resistance area followed by 0.685.
